Darrell and I were pretty close when we were younger. He and I used to go fishing and bowling with his dad a lot. I was just telling my grandkids how we were goofing around in the boat and Darrell decided to put a deep sea fishing lure on his line. This thing had 2 tri-hooks on it and I told him he wasn't going to catch anything on the lake with that thing. I was wrong.....He drew back and cast that thing hooking me right in the back of the head ! Way back when times were good.
