Fred, all although we have not met personally, my wife (Nancy) and I have crossed paths with you and Janice various times. First of all our sincerest sympathy to you on the passing of your wife Janice. Nancy and I live only one building away from you at Huntersville Commons and I am sure we have waved from a distance as we encountered each other. After all we are of the same age and share that bound as well as all four of us being former Great Lakers having traded Lake Effect Snow and Cold for the much more mild Southwestern North Carolina area. I know you are from Jackson, Michigan and Nancy is from south of Lake Ontario in Syracuse, NY and I was born off Lake Erie in Buffalo as well Nancy's sister Julie lives across the hall from you and shared with us how we had visited with Janice in passing. Nancy and I often saw Janice when we shopped at Tuesday Morning. Our sympathy as well to your family members Michael, Fred, Madelyn, Kathy, Tyler, Jill, Janet and Jim. Joe & Nancy Starosciak
