I am just finding out about Jeff's death, and we are very saddened that he's passed. My husband worked with him a while back and know he was dealing with some struggles but he was always a kind and caring person. My prayer is that he felt the love of Christ upon his passing and is rejoicing in heaven now. May he rest in peace.

Jeff, I am so thankful that God gave me 44 years with you as my younger brother. I loved you like no other. I not only lost my brother, I lost my best friend and a piece of my heart that I will never get back. We had so many good times and so many laughs. You had a contagious smile and laugh that would light up the room. You were the best brother anyone could ever ask for and I can not wait until the day I get to see you again. Watch over us because you know my kids need a guardian angel and I do too. I love you and you will be in my thoughts daily. O love you, love your sister, Shelley

Jeff I can't believe you are my guardian angel now. I wished you could've seen the new me. I heard you got sober too. I'm so proud of you. Until we see each other again, fly high sing dance and cut up like you normally do with all the angels up there. I still feel like it's just a bad dream. I love you and miss you already.
