Blaine and Stephen, I know both of you are very proud of your Father and are greatly missing him. My thoughts and prayers are with both of you and your families during this difficult time. Heaven gained one of the best when God called your Father home. Steve was an amazing police officer and a wonderful friend to me for many years. He and I were roommates when my father died in 1981 and he was a great help and encourager When this happened. I am grateful for my friendship with my Brother in Christ, Steve Mullis!
