So saddened to learn recently of Frances's passing. A good lady! My favorite memory is as a child visiting their home from Illinois and eating tomato sandwiches on white bread with Miracle Whip! So delicious. She was such an excellent example of a true Southern Lady. I know she is at peace and health in the presence of her Savior, Jesus Christ. Ken Foster

I remember going to her house, with Jackie. When she was getting ready to go to the market, she would have baked goods everywhere . I hope she had a great life. Dustin told me , her later years she didn't bake. So glad she had a long life. So sorry to the family for another loss. Prayers for all of you.
