She was great aunt I remember all the times we would go over to the house and have thanksgiving dinner and she was a great cook and all the Christmas's that we spent where she always made sure you felt loved and welcome. I would sit with her and talk she was so easy to talk too. She will be greatly missed. Love you Tracie Grant

Dennis Jordan lit a candle in honor of Anita.

Dear Laura, My deepest sympathy to you and your family. Your mom favored your grandmother so much. Mrs. Ledbetter was my neighbor at Abbey Place, and so nice. I will keep you in my thoughts and prayers. Sincerely, Dennis

Anita is the best of the best, so sweet and thoughtful. She always made me feel welcomed and loved. A great cook.Made the best pound cake this side of the mason Dixon line. She and I would talk for hours about birds and critters of all sorts. She's now flying with the angels just like the hawks that we loved to watch.You're the "Greatest Aunt" an old country boy like myself could ever have. Love, Mark ,Chris, and Colin & Caleb
