The last time I saw Savannah she was happy and seeking her best self. We had a good day together and the last memory I have of her was the sound of her giggles. That is a beautiful memory to now have. I will never forget her. I am honored to have shared many healthy, positive and productive moments with her. She's at home now and there's no doubt she's now the version of herself we will all get to meet when our work on Eqrth is complete.
