Marsha Marold lit a candle in honor of Kathleen.

Over the years there have been many beautiful times that made such wonderful memories. The first that popped into my mind is the fun we had baking together with our family during holidays. Her with her apron and rolling pin. Decorating cookies and making ginger bread houses. She was a loving person. Always showed her strength regardless of life around her. I will always be thankful for our talks and will miss them. Boy did she love her children and granddaughter. When I say how much I will miss you Kathleen, that is an understatement. Rest Easy.
