As I spent many weekends courting Harry's sister-in-law, my wife of 52 years, Millie Lipe, I recall the many wonderful meals and friendly conversations with Harry and three very sweet kids, Paula, Gordon, and Glenda. And of course those visits often included a sumptuous meal prepared by Lib. I appreciate the picture, since I had not seen him since his and my brother-in-law, Bobby Caldwell, passed away. May God's comfort be with all of Harry's family in these days when I'm sure his presence will be much missed. John Van Voorhis Greenville, SC
