My mother Rosalie Rosenberger worked with Mary on the NASCAR circuit for a few years. her father Earl, work with my dad as law enforcement in Michigan. my first cigarette was shared with her brother "Butch" behind the barn on their Farm in Jasper. I started a chain of restaurants called Dick's Wings and use NASCAR theming which was suggested by Mary in 1994 when I open my first location. I just learned of Lewis passing while Reviewing Mary's memories. I lived within a few miles of Mary while she was in Florida, i often drove through Adrian on my way to visit my father in Jackson. I regret not following up visits as I often thought I would do it the next time. There always isn't a next time,,,, do it today,, if you're thinking you'll have tomorrow you may not. I will miss them both I have great memories. My condolences and thoughts for Matt and his family.This all Started when watching Talladega yesterday and thinking haven't seen Matt broadcasting lately. Mary...the girl next door. My sister's best friend....the first person in our tiny village that I knew to go on to college. To bring home a convertible...to get a job with the radio station! And to work at the newly built racetrack! MIS! Wow....what a deal! She was smart. She was sassy. She always knew the right thing to do. Classy through and through. And never judged anyone for their decisions. When I lost my own sister in an accident, she became my own. I cannot describe the imprint she has left on my life. So I will just leave this.....thank you for the guidance and the love. ❤️ Forever for her precious Matt and Madison....
