Angel was a dear friend and we were partners working the staten island ferry for the NYPD, Angel gave me the great honor to be in his wedding party and taught me the love of Christ, I just heard of your passing my brother and I am saddened but look forward to seeing you once again in the paradise Of our lord Jesus Christ. Love you brother..

I remembered how fortunate I was to play Man Hunt every chance we had, growing up with Angel in Williamsburg, Brooklyn. He was always the hardest to catch.
