Rita Stokes posted:

Terry, I am so sorry for your loss. Holding lots of good memories, from when we would see you and Bruce out at breakfast-time - (we had the same breakfast spot and we all had great laughs together when you and Rocky would reminisce from your hospital working days together). I will be keeping you and your family in my thoughts and prayers as you go through this time of bereavement.

Msgr. Richard Bellow lit a candle in honor of Bruce.

Bruce was a man who learned from his mistakes where love and happiness could be found. He loved his wife, his children and his grand children. He loved his beloved brothers in the Knights of Columbus. He was a man who found peace within himself and counted himself as being blessed. I am sure he has found peace in the loving arms of his loving God. Rest in peace friend Msgr Richard Bellow
