James Brian O'Connor

JUL 19, 1975 - DEC 5, 2021

James Brian O'Connor, better known as "Jimmy," died on Sunday, December 5, 2021. He was born on July 19, 1975, in Holyoke, Massachusetts to his late father, Jim O'Connor and mother, Teresa O'Connor.

Jimmy was a prominent divorce lawyer in Lexington, South Carolina. He loved spending time with his girls, traveling, and collecting art. He was a history enthusiast and a true patriot. Jimmy's charismatic personality left an impact on everyone he met. He could easily walk in a room and fill it with humorous storytelling, or intelligent and stimulating conversation. He was an adventurous guy from the time he was young, and carried that over with every moment he spent with his loves, his beautiful 3 girls. At many stages of his life he was faced with adversity, but he met each challenge with courage, enthusiasm, and perseverance. His ambition and ability were remarkable.

In addition to his mother, Jimmy is survived by his children, Emma Hadley O'Connor, Abigail Ryan O'Connor, and Isla Shay O'Connor; Brothers, Joseph O'Connor and Robert O'Connor (Alayna); and sisters, Carrie Watters (Kevin) and Deena Lashway (Larry). He is also survived by his three nieces and nephew.

The memorial service will be held on Friday, December 10, 2:00 PM at James Funeral Home in Huntersville.

I am truly saddened by your passing Jim. You were such a great guy that slipped out of my hands years ago. I truly hope the demons you were fighting are gone now and you are at peace. I am so sorry you did not think you could reach out to someone. I would have always been there for you, just a text away. Love you always and will see you one day on the Heavenly side.

This makes absolutely no sense at all. He was such a happy dude and made me try to smile more like him. So incredibly good to his beautiful girls. Will never forget how he invited us into his house and my daughters sleep overs at their house when he would pay to take them all to the expensive Dave & Busters. Even though we lost touch after leaving The Harvest I continued to think about him and his impact on Lexington. Every time I look at a friend on F-book, lo and behold, Jim always shows up as a mutual contact. He was truly loved by everyone. Will miss you bud...

Jim was always so nice and helpful when I first started at the courthouse. He always had a story, made us laugh. If I had a question, he always took the time to answer it. Jim I knew you since you were a little boy. When I see you I see your dad. Your humor, caring nature and eagerness to help anyone in need are his and your endearing qualities. He was so proud of your accomplishments as he was all of his children. Your girls are a reflection of you and they will make a brighter world because of you. You were the best "girl dad", wonderful friend to many, living brother and son. You will be so missed. RIP Jim.

I used to love seeing Jimmy come into the courtroom. He was great to work with. I often ran into him around town as well, taking care of his three wonderful daughters. Jimmy was a valued colleague and will be missed by many.
