When I think of Matt, I think of the many ways he showed kindness to all of those he cared about. I feel so fortunate that I knew him. He was hard-working, humble, funny, and loved a good debate. He was the first to lend a hand if needed, and the last to take credit for the countless ways he looked after friends and family. Matt has gone too soon, and I will miss him very much. My deepest condolences to Matt's family. He was loved by many.

Rita Harvell lit a candle in honor of Matthew.

Matt was a one of a kind man. He was very special to me and always there for me. He made it a point to always check on me. Once he knew I was good then he could go on about his day. This is what made him a very unique individual. RIP Matt and I will miss you.
