Condolences to the Bradford family. I met Barry's brother Scott in college and got to know the brothers over the years. I lived in Charlotte in the '80's, and Barry used to let me ride in his semi-truck full of gasoline on my off-days. Always loved those rides..... Barry, we'll miss you!

Barry was a good friend back in the 70's. That RED BOSS 302 MUSTANG was his pride and joy then. A nicer person you could not find. I have not seen you in many years, but wanted to say thanks for the memories. My prayers are with your family. Lynn Collins Anthony

Growing up in Ramah Church there are many memories of Sunday School, Vacation Bible School and Youth Group trips with Barry and Trisha and the Bradford family. So blessed with those special times it is hard to lose someone who was a part of them. Prayers for the entire Bradford family during this sad time. Cindy Brown Lindsay
