Kathryn Rose Allison

JUL 16, 1944 - NOV 15, 2022

Kathryn “Kathy” Rose Allison, of Denver, NC, passed away Tuesday, November 15, 2022.

She entered this world on July 16th in Muscatine, IA to her wonderful, late parents Robert and Mary Kornemann. In addition to her parents, Kathy is preceded in death by her loving and devoted husband, Doug Allison. She is survived by their four children, Susan (Mark) Wissinger, Kevin (Terry) Allison, Christine (Jon) Vaccarella, and Stacy (Dustin) Kandel; eight grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; her two sisters Carolyn (Ron) Deep, Mary Marlene (Mike) Nevin; and many loving cousins, nieces, and nephews.

Kathy was a member of Holy Spirit Catholic Church. Her greatest joy in life was spending time and talking with her family. All who knew her got to enjoy hearing her proud and fun stories about her family. She also enjoyed socializing with her friends, reading, knitting, playing bunco, and the Hallmark channel. However, most of all family, family, family.

A small, private memorial service will be held this year. The family will be planning a broader Celebration Of Life for Kathy in 2023.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to: Salvation Army Carolinas Angel Tree (<https://give.salvationarmycarolinas.org/give/418335/#!/donation/checkout>) and/or, American Cancer Society in North Carolina (<https://www.cancer.org/about-us/local/north-carolina.html>) and/or, Holy Spirit Catholic Church Building Fund (<https://www.osvhub.com/holyspiritnc/giving/funds>)

Online condolences may be made at www.jamesfuneralhomekn.com.

James Funeral Home, of Huntersville, is serving the family and obituary lovingly written by the family.
