As well as being the best mother ever! Doris spent her working years as a registered nurse in both Chicago, IL and Union City, TN. A profession she excelled in due to her compassionate and caring nature.

She never met a stranger, open heartedly embracing life with kindness and respect toward all. She possessed endless curiosity and intelligence with a brilliant wit. She kept us on our toes and taught us to be our very best selves. She loved to travel the world but always remained a proud American.

She was passionate about Orchids, gardening, books, playing bridge and the beach, she couldn't swim but loved to snorkel. She was also an avid birdwatcher, as well as an animal lover, in particular cats and dogs, rescuing and adopting many into her home and heart. She loved music and the arts and passed this on to her children.

Her life will be celebrated by all those who knew her as she left our hearts full of beauty and the vision of a world where love always finds a way.

Upon the death of her husband Rush, Doris' ashes will be co-mingled with his ashes and buried in Tennessee.

If one wishes to honor her with a donation in her name, please send it to:

Dearest Doris ~You have left our lives, but you will never leave our hearts. I feel like there are too many things that I didn't get to tell you. I am beyond grateful for the way you loved me, my children and all those who were lucky enough to have been touched by your care. You have been a therapist, a friend and a mother to so many. You always had an understated way of making everyone feel like they have gifts in this world that need to be shined for all to see. You were a brilliant, bountiful and beautiful chef. You make the type of food that people yearned to be in your kitchen. (Thanks for teaching me how to make vegetables that actually taste GOOD!) You provided the company that people never wanted to leave. And when they did leave, they never left empty handed. I hope that when I become a mother-in-law that I do half as good a job as what you did for me. That would be the ultimate success. Thank you. Thank you for everything. You will always be more than I could ever have hoped for. Love you Always, Dana
