cottage on 5 acres of land in rural Wisconsin. It was her dream home adorned with flower arrangements and gardens everywhere you looked. While in Wisconsin, Carol pursued a retirement career as a florist and eventually returned to school earning her degree as Master Gardner.

In addition to being a Master Gardner, Carol was a Master Grandmother, Master Reader, and Master Baker. Her specialty being beef stew with dumplings and her signature oatmeal raisin cookies for dessert. Carol even brought tins loaded with oatmeal cookies whenever she visited her family, often guiding them through the metal detector at airline security. Her passion for reading and baking has been passed on to her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

God broke the mold when Carol was born. She found beauty everywhere she looked, she had a boundless supply of love, her vocabulary was unmatched, and she never uttered an unkind word to anyone. If you were lucky enough to have known her you were truly privileged because you met one of God's favorites.

Details regarding Carol's celebration of life service to be announced. In lieu of flowers, donations to Gracious Living Adult Day and Health Care Center in Huntersville would be kindly appreciated.
