In addition to their travels in the RV, Martha enjoyed trips to Hawaii, Alaska, several vacations in Bermuda and particularly her cherished Ireland.

Always the very picture of a New England Lady, Martha was never seen without stylish outfits matching jewelry and she always put her face on “so not to scare anyone”.

Committal services will be held at NorthLake Memorial Gardens.

Patricia Corley posted:

In loving memory of Martha: Martha was so friendly and kind to my mother, MaryAnn, when my mother first moved into the Glens in 2011. My mother did not know anyone, and Martha and Phil kind of took MaryAnn 'under their wings' so that she never felt alone. I enjoyed running into Martha (and Phil) at Mass or at Bonefish Grill over the past few months, and seeing Martha's smile always reminded me of the good times at the Glens. I know that Martha is now under the protective and loving wings of God's angels. With caring thoughts and sincere condolences, Pat Corley
