Thomas O'Donoghue

OCT 25, 1994 - APR 26, 2024

Thomas Charles O'Donoghue passed away on April 26, 2024, in his hometown of Davidson, North Carolina. He was born to John O'Donoghue and Kristen Tuttle on October 25, 1994. Thomas was a graduate of Hough High School and went on to pursue passions in music production and music video production. He loved to make videos supporting local artists and in his free time, playing video games with his friends and cousin, Daniel. Thomas loved animals, in particular, the family dog, Grace, and was often taking her for long walks around Davidson. Thomas' siblings, Ronan O'Donoghue and Niall O'Donoghue, remember him as passionate and knowledgeable in his interests in politics and world events and his ability to make witty jokes whenever the opportunity arose.

Thomas is predeceased by his father, John O'Donoghue; and survived by his mother, Kristen Tuttle and two siblings, Niall O'Donoghue and Ronan O'Donoghue. Thomas is profoundly missed, but he leaves warm and funny memories for those who knew him.

Services at this time will remain private, though donations to the Humane Society of Charlotte are encouraged in lieu of flowers.

James Funeral Home, of Huntersville, is serving the family and obituary lovingly written by the family.
