Mrs. Barbara Brooks, 58, of Charlotte passed away May 21, 2024. Barbara was a loving mother, adoring wife and loyal friend.

Barbara touched and influenced the lives of many through her social media platforms, often sharing her faith in Jesus. The family requests all guests to wear color or floral/pattern as Barbara was all about bold fashion!

A celebration of Life to follow burial where the family will receive friends and family from 1:00-4:00, at 14301 Wynfield Creek Pkwy, Huntersville, NC 28078. There will be food and drinks.

Prayers going out to the family of sweet Barbi! We never met but spoke through DM's over the past 6 years. Her positive, sweet personality will be missed! We as Christ Followers have peace knowing she is with her Savior-Jesus and we as fellow followers of Jesus will see her again!

My heart is broken into a million pieces since Barbi left us last Tuesday, just two days after her birthday. But in the midst of this pain, I have learned about bravery and fight. Her from ZEST for life taught me how to enjoy the moment. Her incredible connection to Jesus was one that I personally benefitted from. I don't know that I've ever seen a mother love her children like she did. I believe that's why she hung on to life for as long as she could..... she didn't want to leave them. Her family was her life and her new husband an angel just like her. I count myself among the blessed ones to have known her and spent precious time together. Her words and wisdom have touched me on such a deep level. I'll miss you FOREVER AND EVER my BEAUTIFUL FRIEND. I LOVE YOU! Save me a place close to you on the other side! XOXO

I never met Barbara, only knew her through social media. But I loved following her for her "realness", her faith, her fashion of course, and her love for her family. My prayers are with her family.

I remember seeing her on Instagram for the first time and I was so touched with her story of her battle, her faith my heart just felt so sad for what she was going through although she was so courageous! I sent her a pink crystal necklace with copper wire that had a Rose quartz heart hanging from it. I had always wanted to give it to a breast cancer patient, I made it 3 years before I saw Barb on social media. I knew then it was meant for her so I asked for her address and sent it to her. She was so sweet and sent me a thank you once she received it. I never met her personally but I felt like I knew her now. She will be missed in the media world but she will live on in spirit through you all. I hope that you will post stories about your mom every now and then, beautiful memories! My prayers are with you and your brother may your Mother rest in eternal peace with God our Father now she is finally pain free! □□□□□□□□

Barb, When we met two years ago, I doubt that you or I ever imagined the path that the Lord would take us down. We went from those awkward first date jitters to the most beautiful relationship that a man and woman could ever share. We supported one another as we faced life's challenges, and grew closer each day we were together. So close, in fact, that we were united as one last August. We were pulled apart way too soon, as there was so much more that we had yet to experience. I will cherish the time we spent together, remembering and embracing the internal and external beauty that defined you as a person. I will love you forever, and will never forget you. I will see you again one day in Heaven. I adore you. Love always, David
