For his contributions to the community, in 2015 he was presented the Key to Huntersville by his amazing friend and former Mayor of Huntersville, the late Jill Swain. Sid was preceded in death by his siblings and his loving wife of 64 years, Pearl Jean Abramsky.

The family will receive friends from 6pm to 8pm Tuesday May 28 and 9am to 10am Wednesday May 29. Sid and Pearl were amazing people! I always loved seeing them in the community. I was able to get to know them while working at First Union. Every time I saw them it was like I had known them all my life. They were so in love with each other and their community.

Sid was my manager at IBM Charlotte in the early 1980's. He was very good at his job,,, of course one usually remembers the personal notes better than the work details. Sid would sometimes stop at my office to chat. I learned that in Sid's childhood in Poughkeepsie, kids would jump into the Hudson River in hopes of collecting coins thrown by folks on the tourist boats... Also, as a baseball fan I was fascinated to hear that Sid and his wife were on the scene for the inaugural season of the New York Mets (1962), and went to a few games. Rick Wessell, Troutman

Sid and Pearl welcomed us with open arms when we moved to Huntersville, NC in 1987.They were wonderful friends who shared many wonderful times with us. When Pearl passed away, it left an emptiness in Sid, but he continued life and was a true fighter. We loved seeing his miniature trains and receive his beautiful needlepoint artwork. He was one of a kind, a true and beautiful gentleman. He will be missed. With much love, Donna and Andy Leeds

I was honored to have known Sid over the last several years. He always had a smile, a warm hug and a joke whenever we were together. He was a loving and devoted husband to Pearl and I know they're together enjoying a joke and a cuddle again.

The world got a little darker Saturday when Sid's candle went out. He meant so much to so many people and he'll be greatly missed.
