To the family with condolences. Following Michael Bennett's lead I am pleased to acknowledge Barry's contribution to the decade long conversations by the members of the Fender Lounge Forums. Another 'six-stringer' has joined the heavenly band. Ave atque vale.

I worked for several years with Barry in the sometimes insane atmosphere of Marketing in Bethlehem, Pa. He was a quiet, humble person, always willing to listen to thoughts and changes to copy without the ego that accompanies that particular role. His office, with quiet music and dim lighting, was a calm oasis in a busy, frantic world. So sorry for the family's loss of a good, kind man. L. Allegra

Barry, I met Tom because of you and I am so grateful. I miss the days where we all hung out before we all moved to different places. You were in our wedding and we got to see you marry Patty. Our hearts are broken. Praying for your peace and for Patty as well. We will miss you my friend. Laurie & Tom Pasake
