

Jacquelyn R. Elliott

NOV 9, 1930 - JAN 3, 2025

Scan to Visit

Table of Contents

Obituary	Page 3
Events	Page 5
Tribute Wall	Page 6

Jacquelyn R. Elliott

NOV 9, 1930 - JAN 3, 2025

Jacquelyn Ruth Elliott November 9, 1930 - January 3, 2025

Jacquelyn (Jackie) Ruth Elliott of Davidson, North Carolina passed away peacefully on January 3, 2025 surrounded by her loved ones. Jackie's best friend and devoted husband of 73 years, Bob Elliott, passed a year ago and we know that their reunion in heaven was a glorious one. She leaves behind her adoring family: daughters Cheryl (Bob) Trgovich, Sue (George) Adlam and Diane (Phil) Wilson. Jackie was a loving grandmother to grandchildren: Jacqui (Scotty) Rivers, Denise (Ryan) Baker, Daniel (Quelita) Trgovich, Katie (Drew) Kline, Joey Logano, Elliott (Lauren) Wilson, Freddie Wilson, Ben Wilson, Miranda, George and Grant Adlam. Jackie is also survived by 15 beloved great-grandchildren, her devoted brother, Lee Goldsberry and his wife Jan, sister-in-law, Joyce Elliott and many nieces and nephews that she loved dearly. In addition to her husband, Jackie was predeceased by her adored sister, JoAnne Keuch.

Jackie was born on November 9, 1930 in Indianapolis, Indiana to Jack and Mildred Kemper Kingsolver. She and her husband, Bob, were able to experience life in many parts of the country such as Hawaii, Michigan, Wisconsin, Florida, New York and Connecticut due to Bob's service in the Navy and work relocations. They were happy to settle down in North Carolina to retire.

Jackie was a nurturing, talented, creative and energetic wife, mother and grandmother. She loved her family above all else and put their needs ahead of her own. She was known for being extremely organized and on top of things. Jackie enjoyed bringing her family together and cooking delicious meals to be presented on a table decorated with fresh flowers and served on fine china. She would often host all of her children and grandchildren for weeks at a time. Jackie was an expert seamstress and sewed elaborate Halloween costumes for all of her children and grandchildren, along with beautiful dresses, window treatments and anything anyone needed. She enjoyed home decorating, classical music, reading historical novels, playing bridge and board games, tennis and a good glass of red wine. She also loved dogs and her furry family members were always treated with care. Throughout her life, she was an active volunteer at church and at the Salvation Army. Jackie spent her life finding ways to serve and show kindness to others. She was happiest when those she loved were happy.

Obituary

Jacquelyn R. Elliott

NOV 9, 1930 - JAN 3, 2025

The family would like to thank Jackie's caregivers at The Pines as well as the team at VIA Health Hospice Care for their compassion and excellent care.

In accordance with Jackie's wishes, she will have a private burial. Memorials may be made to VIA Health Partners (Hospice Care), P.O Box 470408 Charlotte, NC 28247, donatehospice.org or to The Resident Support Fund at the Pines at Davidson, 400 Avinger Lane Davidson, NC 28036.

James Funeral Home of Huntersville is serving the family.

Events

Jacquelyn R. Elliott

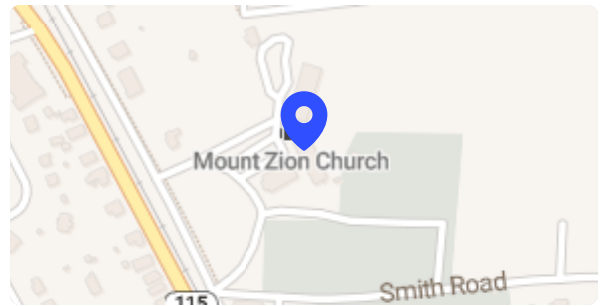

NOV 9, 1930 - JAN 3, 2025

Cemetery Details

Mt. Zion Community Cemetery

19600 Zion Ave., Cornelius NC 28031

Tribute Wall

Jacquelyn R. Elliott

NOV 9, 1930 - JAN 3, 2025

KB

Karen Bullock sent a virtual gift in honor of Jacquelyn.

To the Elliott family, please know that I extend my deepest sympathies and share in your grief and loss. I cannot begin to express how honored I was to count both Jackie and Bob as my friends and blessed to be included in some of the family gatherings and celebrations over the years. I was truly impressed at the milestone of their 73-year wedding anniversary and inspired by their love, caring and lifelong commitment to each other. I thoroughly enjoyed joining the family in the celebration for Jackie's 94th birthday back in November and can still visualize her enthusiasm as she blew out the candles on the cake. I always looked forward to seeing them Sunday mornings and took comfort in knowing they would be sitting right behind me at the early church service, and we would get a chance to chat. Jackie had a long, amazing life this side of heaven and I will absolutely miss her presence as my journey continues forward for now. I can't help but imagine the wonderful reunion she had with Bob as they reunited once again after these many months apart. Well done, good and faithful servant. -Matthew 25:23 I wish you all happy memories to hold on to with a sense of peace, courage and comfort as you take the challenging steps forward and transition through your loss. The following words provided insight and wisdom to me at the time my mother passed away and I hope they also provide you with strength and meaning. That though the radiance which was once so bright be now forever taken from my sight. Though nothing can bring back the hour of splendor in the grass, glory in the flower. We will grieve not, rather find strength in what remains behind. William Wordsworth

January 3 at 7:38 PM

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Jacquelyn by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit

