Pat, Wayne and family, Your mom was a favorite cousin and I have many good memories of this dear lady. Betty continued to send cards or letters to me every few weeks to keep up with our families and I responded back to her. The last card was in December 2024 and I was amazed at her handwriting for a woman her age. Share the wonderful memories you have together and may they all be a comfort to you of how she lived her life, loving and caring for each of you.

Mrs. Betty Pope was always so gentle, kind, and sweet, with a Christian walk that you couldn't miss seeing. I got to spend some time growing up around her. I know she is whole and well and full of joy. God bless and keep the family as they deal with their loss. Love you, Ms. Betty.
