Bobby was a mentor for me as a kid in Cumberland. Always treated everyone respectfully even us guys a few years younger. Will never forget his towering LL home runs and his words of wisdom to me all the way through his years at frostburg. Sorry to the family.

Bob was always the go-to guy to resolve problems at work, with his ever-present calm demeanor. He was a real pleasure to work with. My favorite memory of Bob was actually away from work. Once he came over to my cube and said he had a 'challenge' for me. It was to ride a bicycle with him after work. When I told him I didn't own a bike, he said, that's ok, I have an extra one. It turns out Bob had several bicycles, most of which he would fix up and repair for kids. I then started to ride again, and several times he would organize group rides, which I would join. During the next Memorial Day weekend, he and I drove to Virginia for a large organized ride in the mountains. I eventually purchased the bike from Bob, which I still have, some 23 years later. I'm grateful to Bob for 'forcing' me to start riding again. My deepest condolences to Bob's family. Dave Blankenship Mt Pleasant, SC
