Shashawna Beneke lit a candle in honor of Gregory.

I will always remember Greg as a kind and adventurous soul who brought out the best in those around him. He had a way of challenging you—not just to work harder, but to be a better person. His enthusiasm for life was contagious, and his encouragement meant the world to so many of us. The world feels a little dimmer without his presence, but I am grateful for the moments we shared and the lessons he left behind. Keeping you all in my thoughts and prayers!

Sending much love and support to Greg's family. We worked together at Wells Fargo for several years and I have some great memories of him - mostly how much he loved his children and cherished the time he spent with them.
