Daniel Fadel

MAR 26, 1953 - MAR 29, 2025

Daniel "Dan" Paul Fadel, 72, went home to be with his beloved Lord on Saturday, March 29th, 2025 at his farm in China Grove. He was born on March 26th, 1953 in Spokane, Washington.

Retired from a career in nuclear engineering, Dan always dedicated himself to serving others. Whether it was a family member, neighbor, friend or a complete stranger, Dan would be the first person to drop everything to help. Dan faithfully served his church family by sharing his love for God's word through his Bible teaching on the end times along with his service to his small groups, hospitality and security teams. Dan lived his life to glorify the Lord, wanting everyone to know that Jesus is his rock.

Dan is survived by his wife Merribeth Fadel of 4 years and preceded in death by his wife Michelle Fadel of 22 years. His children are Lauren Fadel (Sean Spangler), James Stultz (Melissa Stultz), Holly Johnston (Rob Johnston), and Thomas Butler. His six cherished grandchildren are Tate (18), Tanner (17), Tucker (15), Brinley (14), Ty (13) and Tessa (10). He is also survived by his mother Barbara Fadel, his brother Evan Fadel (Kathy Fadel) and sister-in-law Jani Fadel. Dan is predeceased by his father Eugene Fadel and his brother Gene Fadel.

Memorials may be made to Arms of Jesus Children's Ministry

Dan taught me how to drive a tractor, plant potatoes, and shoot a gun. He also taught me what it meant to be a Christian by how he lived. Things and accomplishments meant little compared to people and opportunities to share his faith. He welcomed interruptions to his day and considered them "divine interruptions." He was love in action.

Sara Martin posted:

I am forever grateful for Dan and his late wife, Michelle. They were the most loving and genuine outwardly living believers in Christ. Dan had such a servant's heart, and he served with joy and compassion. I am grateful for how he valued people over things and was generous to others. He and Michelle left a footprint in my life and I am forever thankful for them. ♥-Sara Martin
