I met Margaret Mary in St Aedan's grammar school. We went off to different HS's, but remained friends. As the years past, we would meet up for the JC St Patrick's Day Parade on Glenwood & the Blvd and catch up. Such fond memories of you my friend. Godspeed ❤️😭🍀🙏

My Dearest Friend Margaret, I will cherish all the fun, happy and beautiful memories we have shared over our 54 years of friendship. I will remember them always as you asked me to do last week, and smile each time. Thank You for friendship, Rest In Peace, You are a Beautiful Angel now. Love you Margaret and I'll miss you always. 🙏❤️🙏

In my last year of teaching I transferred to Lincoln H.S.. I knew Margaret from Snyder and had no idea she was at Lincoln. She made me feel so at home and took me under her wing. I am so grateful for all the kindness and joy she brought to all who new her. With love and sadness,Debby Hayes
