

Mary McWilliams

DEC 12, 1936 - OCT 27, 2025

Scan to Visit

Table of Contents

Obituary	Page 3
Tribute Wall	Page 4

Mary McWilliams

DEC 12, 1936 - OCT 27, 2025

It is with deep sorrow that we announce the passing of Mary Jane McWilliams, born on December 12, 1936, to Alice and Edward Stein.

Mary Jane was a spiritual beacon whose faith and love guided her family through every season of life. She was a devoted mother to five children, a proud grandmother to eight, and a joyful great-grandmother to four.

Educated and inspired by the Sisters of the Holy Family, Mary Jane embraced the values of faith, family, and service—principles she practiced every day of her life.

A dedicated and patriotic military wife, she also cherished her many roles as sister, aunt, cousin, and friend. Her life was a tapestry woven with devotion—to her family, her community, her country, and her church. As a civic activist, garden club member, bridge player, and faithful servant of God, she approached every responsibility with dignity and grace.

Those who knew her best affectionately called her “Saint Mary” and “Take Charge Mary”—nicknames that reflected her selfless nature and strong spirit. Ever faithful, she kept a very long prayer list—so long that the family’s favorite laugh line was, “Once you got on her prayer list, you never got off.”

Her faith was steadfast, her love unwavering, and her example enduring. Mary Jane will be profoundly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her, and the world will truly feel her loss.

May her legacy of faith, service, and compassion continue to inspire us all.

Online condolences may be made at <https://www.jamesfuneralhomelkn.com>.

Tribute Wall

Mary McWilliams

DEC 12, 1936 - OCT 27, 2025

Eleanor Schmidt posted:

Jane and I met Freshman year at Nazareth and we have been friends for 70 years

October 31 at 2:24 PM

John Terrie Grimes posted:

The Bereavement Ministry Team and the Parish Community of St. Mark Catholic Church extend our deepest sympathy at this difficult time. Be assured that you and your family are in our prayers.

October 29 at 9:43 PM

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Mary by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit

