Brenda Cahoon

JAN 4, 1944 - NOV 12, 2025

Brenda Flowe Pope Cahoon, 81, passed away Wednesday, November 12 with her loving husband and children by her side.

A native of Charlotte, Brenda was born January 4, 1944 to the late Ayer McKee and Daisy Benton Flowe. She was preceded in death by her first husband, Bruce Pope, her first born daughter, Glenda Lee Pope, her sister, Phyllis Hord and stepdaughter Kim Farmer.

She was a member of Neighborhood Church in Huntersville, but spent most of her life as a member of Philadelphia Presbyterian Church of Mint Hill where she taught Sunday School and shared her love of Jesus. After 30 years in the Charlotte Mecklenburg school system, she retired from Lebanon Road Elementary in 2005 where she was a teacher's assistant. Her love and passion for her students was showing them how much they were loved and she truly believed each child needed a daily hug.

She was very creative and in her younger years she was always making flower arrangements, painting and decorating the halls of the schools. She had a love for dancing, traveling, and playing the piano, but her greatest joy was her children! She gave so selflessly, loved so deeply and her million dollar smile would light up a room!

Brenda was married to Bruce for 43 years until his death in 2007 and from this union they had three children. Together they spent many years enjoying bowling and fishing! She married Dexter Cahoon in 2008 and enjoyed her retirement traveling the United States, going on cruises and having the time of her life!

She was always gentle, kind, caring, loving and her faith guided her through her life. Mom, throughout our lives your love, grace and strength was like a beacon through the night. We miss you so much but know in heaven you wait.

When she discovered that we were trying to hide her medicine in her food/drinks. Everytime I did that she made some funny faces and we started laughing together. Also, when we celebrated everytime she made it from one place to another when she was feeling a little weak. We cheered each other a lot!-Sandra G

The day she was a rebel haha One morning Dexter was hosting a breakfast and everyone was telling her to be silent because they were trying to pray, so I hugged her and kindly whispered to her ear "Shhh Mam". She did. But when everyone started talking again, Brenda said SHHHH to all the guests 😊 she got her revenge.- Sandra G

One thing we had in common was music ❤️ I will never forget when I started taking care of her, we listened to piano music but one day I played some Elvis Presley and wow! We started dancing together and she couldn't stop smiling. Music is a passion that will never be forgotten.
