I was fortunate to meet Rick in our high school days. We became good friends and worked together part time for his uncle "Bub" Cashion. We were also members of the Davidson Volunteer Fire Department. As the years passed, we saw each other less but every time we did meet, our conversation was just like we had seen each other yesterday. Rick was a man who would help you any way he could. He did a lot of volunteer work in the community, was an engaged member of Davidson Methodist Church, and just an all-around fine person. All of us thar knew him have suffered a tremendous loss. Prayers to his family.

Dear Pam, There are times in life that bring us to moments that cannot be more testing than the one you are experiencing.
