“ I was a neighbor to Barbara while growing up on McNelly Avenue. Barbara, Melanie, Sharon (Little Wee), and myself (Pattie) spent many summers playing together. We have lots of fond memories of our time spent together. I am so sorry to hear of her passing. Your family is in my prayers. Love and prayers, Pattie Long Sigmon

“ I was Ryder's first grade teacher and was blessed by Grommy's presence more times than I can count. She was always volunteering in my classroom and at our school, and attended every field trip with us. I have such fond memories of her. She was the BEST grandma on the planet! Love, hugs, and prayers to the family.

“ We are so very sorry for your loss. We always enjoyed seeing Barbara at yoga and when we were out walking. Especially when she was walking with Cole and Ryder. She really enjoyed having those boys with her. We will very much miss her in the neighborhood.
