“ I am heartbroken at the loss of a big hearted guy who loved his family, his friends and his work family. Brian you will be missed, you left us too soon.

“ In a short time of working together I experienced Brian's dedication to his work and his clients admirable. He had a quick wit and what was evident is he approached his work with great passion and pride as he often shared his source of his inspiration was his family. Brian was a do right, intellectually spirited, bright light kinda guy that will surely be missed. Peace be with him and his family at this difficult time.

“ It's been many yrs since college, but Brian was always positive, friendly and ready for action, and memorable in a great way. A great sense of humor and a deep thinker, he was an inspiring, man and positively driven. Brian made an impact on people immediately and all were better for having known him. RIP

“ My heart genuinely hurt when I learned of Brian's passing tonight. His love for family was obvious. His care and concern for others, unmistakable. There are people on this earth who make a difference just by being there. While I worked with Brian as a customer for many years, he was more like a friend. We kept in touch when our business relationship ended and shared stories of family, friends and purpose. He was a remarkable man and I am thankful that I knew him. He will always be remembered as someone who enriched the life of others by being their friend. His eternity is blessed, as he is now with our God. My heart and sincere prayers go out to Katya, Brian's children and his family.

“ I am so very very sorry to hear of Brian's passing.
I worked for Ikon and hired Brian. We worked together in the Poughkeepsie office.

He was a wonderful person and a great salesperson. I thoroughly enjoyed working with him as well as spending leisure time with him.

He was always well prepared in business and was very competitive which made him so successful.

God Bless his family. I wish them the best.

Sincerely yours,

“ Hearing of Brian's passing is shocking and upsetting to me.
Brian came to IKON in Glastonbury from Poughkeepsie and made a “significant” contribution to our Sales Training Curriculum.
Many people like think of themselves as being “successful”; but Brian was more importantly SIGNIFICANT in all aspects of his and the many lives he touched. His energy and spirit will be missed by many.
Renee and my heartfelt sorrow go out to Katya and his family.

Sincerely,

Jay and Renee Singer

“ It seems like yesterday even though it has been 20+ years since Brian and family came to the Carolinas. I had the honor to work with Brian and he will be missed. Very few could match his passion and he always bragged on his family during our non business discussions. My prayers to the family.

“ I worked with Brian for many years. He was definitely one of a kind. Very passionate and intense when it came to taking care of his clients. Many times we were updating presentations on elevators heading to a business review, as things would pop in his head at the last minute that he wanted to include. He was extremely caring and thoughtful, with a very kind heart. He loved his family, and being a husband and dad. He was very proud of his children, and there was never a meeting that he didn't mention the love of his family. He will be greatly missed by his Ricoh family. Katya, you are all in our prayers.

“ I can't put into words what a special human being Brian was. From first getting to know him as an amazing father when our kids played soccer, to seeing the driven, focused competitor he was on the basketball court, Brian was passionate about everything he did, and an inspiration to those around him. Katya, Luke, Nina, and Olivia, I am so sorry. May you all rest in God's hands.

“ I had the pleasure of getting to know Brian over the last two years and his encouraging words were a source of inspiration for me. Rob Mautz - December 27, 2020 at 10:31 PM

“ Brian, Katya, and their children were among the very first friends we made when we moved to the Lake Norman area over ten years ago. Brian coached our sons' 4th grade recreational soccer team, and he impressed me with his commitment to coaching our boys properly. He went to the extent of enlisting a college soccer player to help him prepare for the role, because he wanted the boys to learn to play the game the right way while enjoying themselves. So Brian struck a good balance, running a tight ship while making sure his players had fun. It was such a positive experience for all that many friendships were forged over that fall season, among players and parents both. We will miss Brian and our thoughtful and animated conversations with him. Dearest Katya, we love you and offer our prayers and support for you, Nina, Luke, and Olivia. Rest in peace, Brian. - Leia, Ramon, Victor, and Tim Anastacio

“ Although I only knew this kind man a short while, he shared something with our friends one day that changed my life. “Practice makes possible”.....he said his daughter’s teacher had told her that and I loved it so much I have passed it along to my 9 year old daughter. We say it all the time so now we will add a prayer at the end to remember Brian and continue to pray for his family.

“ I had the pleasure of getting to know Brian while supporting his efforts during my tenure as a Strategic Sales Executive for Canon and believe our success played a significant role in bringing me to Ricoh. I was fortunate to become his friend as we spent countless hours outside of work. Brian loved life and possessed a work ethic like no other. He worked hard and we played hard. I'm blessed to have had the opportunity know him and learn from him. My heart is heavy and my thoughts and prayers are with his family and the Ricoh team- gone far too soon

“ I feel so blessed to have gotten to know Brian since moving here from CT a few years ago.. He was a great friend who always followed up with me on issues I would share with him... he had great love for Katya, Luke, Nina and Olivia and always pridefully shared stories about them with me.... he was a staunch NY Giants fan, and loved "ribbing me" about them beating my NE Patriots twice in Super Bowls... I will miss him...
