“ Tim and family,
Candy let me know today of Dee's passing. I am so sorry, Tim. Dee struggled these past few years but always had a smile.
We share so many memories of bridge and dinners together over the years in Knoxville.
The girl trips up to Gatlinburg for shopping and bridge. We always looked forward to Dee making your mother's Swedish tea cake for breakfast.
I know you are going to miss Dee, Tim . You took such good care of her, never showing anything but love and patience.
May God keep you in his loving care.
Always,
Sue Hoof
