

Elizabeth Kline

September 9, 1953 - April 23, 2019

Elizabeth A. Kline, age 65, passed away on Tuesday, April 23, 2019 at her home in Huntersville, North Carolina.

Liz was born on September 9, 1953 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania to George and Jeanne (Brisbin) Kline. From an early age, her passion for performing and ease with people made her a quick friend and confidante to those who had the good fortune to meet her. She is known to many in her hometown as an actress of considerable talent who acted in and directed many productions at Comtra Theatre, the Red Barn Theatre, and the Kean Theatre at St. Barnabas, to name just a few.

Liz was also a fighter, having survived three organ transplants as the result of childhood diabetes that also robbed her of much of her sight and mobility in later years. Despite this, she maintained a warmth and good humor that will be sorely missed by all who loved her. She is survived by her sister Priscilla Jacobson, brother-in-law Alan Jacobson, nephew Josh Jacobson and his wife Adara Jacobson, as well as her many theatre friends in the Pittsburgh area.

Please join us in celebrating her life on Saturday, May 4 from 4:00-6:30pm at the Hilton Garden Inn in Cranberry, Pennsylvania. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Animal Friends or to a nonprofit theatre of your choice.

Online condolences at www.jamesfuneralhometkn.com.

Comments

---

“ Sweet Liz will be so very missed. She was a bright light in the world. She was kind, talented and so much fun. May she rest in peace.

Adara Jacobson - April 30 at 11:08 AM

---

“ I was lucky enough to, not only go one year to college with Liz, but I got to share my love of the theater with her. She was many times my inspiration and she kept me laughing in rough times. I will miss her immensely.

James Watson

James Watson - April 29 at 03:55 PM

---

“ When Liz and I did Young Frankenstein we had such fun grabbing each other's thighs!
She was wonderful to work with again; and to assist backstage. Her Laugh is happily now part of my structure.

carrie - April 28 at 10:32 PM

---

“ We are the Mitchell's who purchased your family home on Woodhill drive in 1981. We want to send our deepest sympathy to you and the family on the loss of Liz whom I had the pleasure to know thru Bakerstown Presbyterian Church. Her talent was appreciated and well respected at church with many adults and children. We have remained here at this residence and I think of your mother and Liz every spring when the daffodils bloom that she planted. Robert and Cheryl Mitchell

cheryl mitchell - April 28 at 03:49 PM