

John W. Bost III

February 9, 1979 - July 28, 2020

John William Bost III, our beloved son, adored brother, and friend to many across the country, was unexpectedly called to Jesus on July 28, 2020, at the age of 41.

John is survived by his parents; his brothers and sister in law, Matthew, Miryam and Adam Bost; his nephew Gavin Bost; and his significant other Eren Kamiyama. He is predeceased by his grandfathers, John William Bost Sr. and James Hutchens and his grandmothers, Helen Bost and Ann Munday.

John was born in Statesville, North Carolina, on February 9, 1979, to John William Bost Jr. and Joyce Bost. He graduated from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte in 2000 with a degree in Criminal Justice and served as a police officer for the Charlotte Mecklenburg Police Department. In 2006, John graduated from the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives as a special agent and was stationed in Hawaii. Later in 2012, John was recognized as the Hawaiian Law Enforcement Officer of the Year.

John was a devout Christian. He had a charismatic personality that resulted in instantaneous friendships. He was an avid outdoorsman that loved to travel. His hobbies included hiking, surfing, paddle boarding, scuba diving, snorkeling, and rowing. He visited several countries including Mexico, Germany, and Australia. John was well known for both his attention to detail as well as his witty banter. He will be deeply missed by his friends, family, and all who knew him.

A receiving of friends is scheduled for 1:00 pm on August 7, 2020 at Northside Baptist Church on 333 Jeremiah Blvd, Charlotte, NC. Following the reception, the funeral ceremony will begin at 2:30 pm. Rev. Wally Carmichael and Rev. Steven Stinson will officiate.

Memorials may be made to the ATFA Foundation at <https://atfafoundation.org>

Flowers, donations, and condolences may be offered at James Funeral Home LKN 10520 Arahova Dr Huntersville NC 28078. Online condolences may be made at <http://www.james>

“ Joyce, Billy, Matthew and Adam, I am heartbroken to hear that John is no longer on this earth. I will always have warm memories and admiration for him. You have my deepest sympathies. May God wrap His loving arms around you all and give you strength and peace. Coni Williams

“ I don't know what to say.

John was my friend for twenty years and still, I don't know what to say.

What words does one use when there are no words?

One of the great honors of my life was receiving John home along with his family and our old Charlie 1 teammates and laying him to rest. I'll carry that with me always.

John and I once responded to a call for service at the home of an older couple. I don't remember their names and I don't remember their faces. I don't even remember the nature of the call. But once we handled it I moved on to the next one and John stayed behind. After that he checked on them often and over the years he grew very close to them. He became a son to them.

There are more exciting stories but I mention that one because oftentimes when someone passes we hear the standard, cliché things like, “He had a big heart.” and “He would give anyone the shirt off his back.” or “He was a good cop.” Know that when those things are said about John they are unreservedly, unequivocally true.

John was at my house on December 19, 2019 for a visit while he was home for Christmas. He often made the rounds to see his friends when he was in town. We talked about his wonderful mother and about how his father was a penny pincher- he wished he would spend more on himself. We talked about the patrol days and he filled me in on what some of the old crew was up to. He was really good about keeping up with those guys.

We didn't take a picture and we didn't talk about the next time we might see each other. But I remember that quick, bro-hug just before he walked out the door that day. And I swear if I thought it could be the last time I would see him, I would've made that one count.

We love you, John

“ As one who had the privilege of knowing John from kindergarten through high school, I feel honored to have witnessed his brilliance and vivid personality for such a long and ever changing part of his life. Yet, I'm overwhelmingly sad, knowing I was unable to experience the tenacious, caring, and vivacious leader he became.

The qualities, so pivotal to his character, there from the beginning, always growing in there depth and capacity, impacting innumerable lives... I simply wish I had been able fully know the incredible man he was to his family, his Hawaiian friends and family, his ATF colleagues, mentors, and mentees. Whether in Charlotte, DC, Maui, or the numerous other places gifted with his presence, we were all blessed to call him friend.

To his family, I pray for strength through the devastation and thank you for gifting us John. To those who held his highest esteem and were closest to his heart, I pray peace embrace you until you are able to feel its presence.

And to John, rest in peace, dear friend, knowing you were valued, respected, and loved by many.

“ "As i go, i wear you." John, you touched me & my life more than you know, & that WILL live on, always---you helped me through the most trying of tough horrific times, & we've repaid the favor over & over in the years since then. I will miss you more than you know--one of my dearest true friends, w/whom I could share all w/o fear of judgement. God gave us a new amazing angel in you, so I'll try not to be angry nor sad, but thankful. Your cheerful, genuine, & reassuring voice will forever resonate in me & be music to my ears--for I could never forget that. Till we meet again.....

“ John, it was an honor to know you, it was an honor to call you friend, and it is an honor to stand guard over you tonight in Atlanta as you make your way home. It seems terribly unfair that someone so full of life should have his cut short, but from reading all the tributes your colleagues, friends and family have posted it is obvious that you had a positive impact on so very many people. I hope that we can all find some solace in knowing that those who are remembered never truly die.

Godspeed and fair winds, brother, and someday we will meet again.

“ I had the privilege of graduating from high school with John (and Kindergarten and all the grades between). John was fiercely protective of his “people,” and I always felt safe when he was around. He would make me laugh every morning before the start of Senior Bible with his animated stories. It was a good way to start the day. I ran into John about eight years ago. He was just as funny, friendly, and engaging as ever. I am praying for Mr. and Mrs. Bost, Adam and Matthew. I am so very sorry for your loss. Praying that Jesus brings you peace and comfort as only He can do. Here’s a picture of me, John, and my sister in New York 1997. It reminds me of his big personality.

“ Please also be assured that somehow we do find a way to go on. I am not sure from where we find the strength. Certainly having family and friends near helps, and faith plays its hand. I just know we have to keep getting up each morning, make it through the day the best we can, then lay down at night. Eventually sleep comes and with it, a new day. And that new day will be ever so slightly easier than the one before, and so on until the pain begins to subside. This does not mean their memory fades in the least. In fact, without the painful emotions to overwhelm and consume us, their memory is, with time and tears, even clearer and ever more precious.

Walk towards that day.

While I didn't know John personally we all feel his loss. All his ATF family is praying for his family and friends.

“ I am deeply saddened by John’s passing. John leaves a void that will not be filled. While no words can fully capture the essence of who John was I want to share my thoughts about John.

I met John when he moved to Hawaii as an ATF agent. For over 10 years, we worked on many cases together. When talking with other attorneys and agents, John’s name would always come up as someone you would want on your case. John was someone others should emulate.

John was diligent and thoughtful. John always worked hard to make his cases better. John acted without being prompted. John was efficient and responsive. Requests to John were always completed quickly and without a complaint. However, John did not blindly complete tasks. As a team, we engaged in thorough discussions to understand why a task was necessary so we could learn and apply what we learned on the next case. John’s integrity was beyond reproach. John never hid the ball or did anything even remotely questionable. Instead, John flagged issues so they could be dealt with and there would not be any surprises. John’s analytical skills and attention to detail were amazing. John quickly identified issues (both legal and factual) and therefore was a second lawyer on the case. I often told John that he should go to law school to make it official. John’s questions and work made me a better lawyer. John was also a very humble person who focused on team/relationship building. Despite his tireless work on many successful cases, John always deflected accolades. It was never about him. It was always about case, the others on the team, and doing what was right.

John made a lasting impact by making Hawaii, especially Kauai and Maui, safer. John will be remembered as an exceptional agent but more so as a truly good and genuine person. I will miss his friendship. I am better for having known and worked with John.

My prayers go out to his family and friends. We all knew John in a different way but I’m sure what I have shared only confirms what everyone knew of and/or felt about John.

“ I had the pleasure of working with John many times, on many important cases, while he was a special agent with ATF in Hawaii. John was perhaps the hardest working, most conscientious, and thorough law enforcement officer I have worked with in my 31 years as an Assistant U.S. Attorney. John cared deeply about the safety of the community and it showed in his work ethic and the cases he brought to a successful resolution.

But much more important, John was my friend. I am deeply saddened by his passing. I think of him often and will sorely miss him.

“ I met John by selling him his condo on Maui and we became friends. What a guy. I have had immense sadness knowing all who cared are suffering. He was so funny and kind! The lender that referred him to me told me his name was Josh.....for 4 consecutive days of showing property and phone calls he continued to let me call him Josh haha!! When we finally found a place he liked, I told him to send me his legal name in a text with middle initial as well for the contract. Low and behold I see his name is John. I called him immediately and he said " I just couldn't break your heart," he was too nice, and he admitted it was simply funny. We became friends after the sale of his condo and kept in touch. We shared similar humor and as a small closing gift I sent him some swim caps and mailed them to the "Josh Bost Swim Club," he immediately knew it was from me.....we hesitated with the condo purchase as the rules indicated you must wear a swim cap in the pool if you had somewhat long hair, which he did!!! We thought it was crazy, but went along with the purchase. We made light out of it. We still kept in touch and were there for each other when we "needed to talk." What a great guy. I will miss him very very much. I am so sorry for everyone that loved and had connections with him. I am on Maui, I live right down the street from the place I sold him, please any family members let me know if there is anything at all I can do to help. Anything. He is so missed. “ Friends and Family of Johnny! This breaks my heart, John was a great kid. In the 90’s I owned a Jewelry store in uptown Charlotte, Johnny was working as an Uptown Guide planning on becoming a CMPD officer when he finished college. I would tell those kids in the winter come by the store and get coffee, get warmed up before finishing your shift! After he joined CMPD I would pick on him and tell him he needed to think bigger “ join and Alphabet agency “ I would tell him!
Never will forget the day he called and said ATF is going to call you as my reference!
Went to see him in At for his wedding years later. Would talk to him from time to time, going to miss him! He was a bright spot in all our lives! I am sure we will meet again on the other side!

“ Sending well wishes and comfort to John's family, friends and coworkers. From the many words of comfort, it sounds like John was the kind of person who made the world a better place just by being in it and was someone EVERYONE should have had the pleasure of meeting. To his family and all who knew him, the pain you feel right now may seem insurmountable, but remembering his personality, what he stood for and the way he lived will eventually turn the sadness into fond smiles and memories and stories about him. May John Rest In Peace.

“ Billy, Joyce, Matt, and Adam: It has been a long time since we connected and certainly this way was not the plan. But God...(through Isaiah reminds us)... "His ways ... and His thoughts are higher ..." soon the mysteries to be revealed of things we don't comprehend or understand. Your heart must swell as you learn of the positive impact your special son made on so many lives during his time on earth. Your family is in my heart and my prayers that soon, the pain of grief will be replaced by the joy of memories. In His Love, Bonita Pickett
