“ Thinking about my brother-in-law John, he was quite a character. He had such a dry sense of humor, he could make you laugh with just a look. He was a good, hard working man, that loved his family. You will be missed John Federmack (that is how he always answered his phone) .. I am so grateful that I was able to visit with him for a week last November. We talked and shared stories, which made us laugh a bit. A thought that makes my heart smile, is that he is now with my sister Linda and dear sweet nephew Randy again .. John, please give them a few tight hugs from me... And special AC kisses to Ran .. Till we meet again, keeping the entire family in my prayers and always in my heart .. Carole and Frank

“ Dad was as I always called him “a crazy old man!” He had a warped sense of humor and a laugh that made you laugh too. He planned his own funeral (with a few minor changes) and insisted that the 3 Stooges are played at his service. Dad was still making jokes and making us laugh right up to end. Unfortunately he did not get to enjoy much of a retirement since he became ill so quickly. He had planned to go to Florida and fish! Happily , dad did get to Florida and enjoy some nice weather, fishing, and spending some quality time with his sisters. There is no doubt of dads love for his family and the excitement in his voice when he spoke of his grandchildren. I will miss him dearly, and my heart is broken, but I smile at that fact that he is back with Linda and my brother Randy. ...Till we meet again Pop!

“ Lisa, I'm so sorry for your loss. Your dad was so cool. I remember working for him years ago with John. We just left his house in Moriches heading to a job. John was driving the van with me and we were behind your dad in his brand new pickup and John accidentally ran into the back of him at a stop sign. Your dad jumped out, looked at his dented tailgate, threw his hands in the air and yelled "There it goes!" He got back in his truck and drove off to the job. I think I laughed all the way to the job. Please give John my condolences.

“ Glad that I got to spend some time with John while he was still able to enjoy it somewhat. I'm sure he's enjoying a cold one right about now & laughing at life's ironies.

“ John was loved by his surviving 8 siblings, Elizabeth, Thomas, Mary Louise, Kathryn, AnnMarie, Nancy, Peter and Dorothy. He was pre-deceased by his brother Michael. John was also pre-deceased by his son, Randy Martin. His sense of humor and laugh will be missed by many! John had a ready smile and was generous to those less fortunate than him.
