“ I first met Otto when my partner (brother of Yolanda) and I travelled to America, and was invited to stay with them for a few days. Otto was very welcoming (if a little shy with me at first). Although it was literally a ‘flying visit’, I sensed that Otto was a kind, warm, generous and a very loving family man.
We need more ‘Ottos’ in this world, not less. He will be sorely missed by all lucky enough to know him.
DESCANSA EN PAZ.

“ I have some very happy memories of Otto and sharing a beer or two along with some awesome food at Brad and Veronica's house. He was always smiling and happy. Norma and I made a contribution to St. Jude's in his honor. We continue praying for his eternal rest and peace in heaven where one day we can only hope and pray to meet again.

“ I had the distinct pleasure to work with Otto over the course of the past 13 years. He was a valued associate and one that F. N. Sheppard & Company could always rely on. The pride and satisfaction he put in with regards to turning out quality work day in and day out was second to none. One of his favorite catch phrases was...
“Presentation Davey, presentation!”
I will value and cherish the wonderful friendship we developed over the years. The musical trivia along with the overall appreciation of music we shared will be sorely missed as will the many other moments and memories we shared along the way. These memories will be forever remembered and treasured.
I am honored and humbled to call you friend!

“ Una de las razones por la que decidí ingresar a trabajar a F. N. Sheppard fue Otto, hizo lo posible por hacerme sentir bien y a gusto y lo logro.....este año En los días mas tristes y preocupantes de la etapa mas difícil de mi vida (el tratamiento de tumor cerebral de mi princesita) siempre se preocupó por mi estado de ánimo y el bienestar de Isabella.... Me hacía los días mas tranquilos y llenos de amor..... Te voy a extrañar demasiado Otto y tu silvido en el taller lo escucho mentalmente gracias por todo y por preocuparse de mi familia..... Si de haber sabido que ese viernes era la ultima vez que lo veía lo hubiera abrazado muy fuerte lo quiero mucho.

Esta foto fue un día que me acompañaste a calmar la sed, la mejor compañía para una buena cerveza. Y ahora que voy a hacer 🙋♂️ ???

PTT: la muñeca que le regalaste a Isabella es una de sus favoritas 😊😔🙋♀️🌈

One of the reasons why I decided to go to work at FN Sheppard was Otto, he was doing everything possible to make me feel good and comfortable and he did it this year In the saddest and most difficult days of the most complicated stage of my life (the brain tumor treatment of my little princess) he always worry about the state of my mind and the well-being of Isabella He made the days calm and full of love I'm going to miss too much Otto and that whistle in the workshop I can hear it still, thank you for everything and for worry about my family If I had known that Friday was the last time I saw you I would hugged you really hard , I love you very much friend.

This photo was a day that you accept to give me company one of those Fridays after work, the best company for a good beer. And now what am I going to do 🙋♂️ ???

PTT: the doll you gave Isabella is one of her favorites 😊😔🙋♀️🌈❤️

“ The memories I have of my brother-in-law Otto are so many but what stands out the most is his demeanor. As a trained military man, he was always polite and formal. I remember he would say to me "hey Ana Maria why is it that...." and I would give him an answer and he would always say "I thank you very much." I will always remember his love of music which is something we shared!!! I will share photos of our trip to Lima, Perú in December of 2015. We had such a great time! On December 4, 2020 we exchanged text messages while he was in the hospital. I sent him Frank Sinatra's New York, New York on behalf of my husband Pat and he responded with "it's a great melody, song of my memories, thank you to Pat for his gesture. Good night." That would be the last time I was in touch with him. Otto, you will be missed greatly but I also know you fought a hard battle. Our thoughts and prayers are with Yolanda, Veronica and your family in Perú. May you rest in Peace.

Spanish: Tengo muchos recuerdos de mi cuñado Otto. La que tengo mas presente es de su manera de actuar. Ya que fué militar, siempre fué educado y muy correcto. Me acuerdo que me decía: "Oye Ana Maria por qué será que..." y una vez que yo le contestaba me decía "te agradezco mucho la información." Siempre me acordaré de lo mucho que le encantaba la música, algo que a mi también me gusta!!! Estoy compartiendo unas fotos y un video de nuestro viaje a Lima, Perú en Diciembre del 2015. Lo pasamos fenomenal! El 4 de Diciembre intercambie textos con él mientras que estaba en el hospital. Yo le envié la canción New York New York de Frank Sinatra de parte de mi esposo Pat y me contestó "es una gran melodía, canción de mis recuerdos, gracias a Pat por esa deferencia. Hasta mañana." Esa fue la última vez que estuve en contacto con él. Otto, nos vas a hacer mucha falta pero luchaste valientemente. Nuestras oraciones y pensamientos estan con Yolanda (mi hermanita querida), Veronica, Brad, Adrian y toda la familia en Perú. Que en paz descanses.

“ I attended my first ever NFL game in 2016 because of Otto's generosity. My husband and Otto had been long time friends, but that game was my first time meeting him and Yolanda. I enjoyed every time we all got together after. Otto was kind, generous, fun, and an all-around good guy. I count myself as one of the lucky ones having known him. He will be very much missed.

“ The first time I met Otto we traveled with wives to South Carolina to visit my son. Although Otto's English was limited we were able to comment quite well. Otto had lots of cds of classic rock n roll. I was amazed as we played them and of course sang along, Otto knew the lyrics to every one in perfect English. He was a wonderful generous man. Salute, Otto I toast you.
