“ My heart is heavy, my dear friend! But I know your beautiful laughter and loving heart is lighting up the heavens! Since the late 70's, we've laughed, cried, shared, and even worked together to improve the community through the Pfafftown Jaycees/Jaycettes. My whole family was enriched by your sweet life. Each time I hear "Don't it Make My Brown Eyes Blue," I think of us singing by the player piano! Love you dearly, sweet Sally!!

“ Dressing up at Halloween with the Crompton children and cousins was only one of the many precious ways Sally and Mike showed their love, affection and interest in Hazel, Ellie and WO. She was a blessing, an “extra grandmother “ to our grandchildren and we loved her for loving them and us.

“ Dear sweet Sally. You became my sister when you married my nutty brother :) , but over the years, through the highs and the lows, that bond grew strong and we became sisters of the heart! What great memories we made together with family! I know God has you in his care now, you are free of all earthly pain. Your spirit will remain with us all until we are together again. All my Love, Cindy

“ Mike & family
So sorry for your loss; life is sometimes very hard. I will keep you in my prayers as God brings you to my mind. Esther & I also celebrated our 48th anniversary this year, I never met Sally but if she was your wife she must have been a wonderful person.

“ I will cherish all of the many memories of us together especially in the neighborhood when Chris was a toddler and the Jaycees. You both were such a great example for all of your love for each other. I will continue to always hear Sally's laugh and remember her thoughtfulness. I missed us not being closer to visit.

“ Sally and Mike, Linda and Tom Beatty and us were the "cartel." at DUMC. We started as a church group organized to dine in each other's homes, but the women quickly decided we would be dining out.

Watching Sally and Mike was a visible advertisement for a good marriage. Like a lot of us in long marriages, they ceased being two and become one. It was heartwarming to watch.

We were each other's best friends for more than a decade. We cruised, spent time in Hilton Head and Charleston, eating our way through each. We even got as far as San Francisco.

In each town, the women would all visit their favorite jewelry store and Chico's, so the trips could be expensive.

Besides eating, the main thing we did was laugh. We were one of those groups where things just clicked. And Sally was "the straw that stirred the drink."

I will miss being able to say, "Sally Mowrey is my friend."
